

Exciting SLP Members' Social @ Jurong Country Club

Who's this cowboy?

Our Band -- Definitely a crowd pleaser

Remember the announcement in our last newsletter. The real thing on Saturday, 16th April surpassed our expectations.

Members in the spirit of things came dressed up as "Cowboys and Cowgirls". Richard Gillis and his wife, Kay, had a hard time picking the six individuals for the best dressed awards.

We welcomed the guests with the usual non-alcoholic sparkling juice and taco chips and salsa dip. Wow! Some ladies even expressed an interest in having the salsa recipe. If you want it, contact Lylia at the SLP Secretariat.

Thanks are due to the organizing committee -- Dennis Tay, Johnny Liak, Michael Yan, Teng Chong Seng, Tommy Chng, Lylia Law and Sam Tsen for their unstinting efforts and sacrifice. (Editor: Jacob was the leader of the committee.) Of course we wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our corporate members --- SRC, Vopak, Pfizer and DuPont Sakra -- for their generosity in providing the souvenirs.

Yes we started on time with Professor Catherine Tay sharing her expertise and experience on how to write a will. Of course, her enthusiasm and anecdotes livened up a very serious subject. By the way, do cowboys write their wills before going out on a gun duel?

Dinner was a fusion of eastern and western styles. Rating – could be better. Fortunately, the music from our band was excellent while we ate. The band's rendition of oldies and the latest hits got everybody listening and singing along. The band's invitation to sing on stage got some people going up, including Professor Liew's wife, without any further prompting. That's what we call spontaneity.

Then the games! After some video coaching on kung fu movements, exotic Hawaiian hula dancing and Indian movie dancing, the crowd was ready. This game generated the most fun and laughter. So who's the winning team? A bunch of oldies led by the live wire Professor Liew Ah Choy. No one can deny that this was the highlight of the evening. We must thank Dennis Tay and his co-conspirators for this touch of genius. .

We have no fear about future jobs -- we can be hula hula dancers

When it came time to say Good Night, in true SLP tradition, we ensured that nobody left for home empty handed. Door gifts produced by the organizing committee and souvenirs from corporate members were distributed.

Many went home with more than these gifts. They were those who worked hard at the games. Of course, there were some who were rewarded by their good fortune. You guessed it – we had a luck draw too.

No matter. We had a great time We relaxed. . We chatted ... ate played ... and had plenty of fun and laughter together.

So if you missed out this time, make it a point to join us next year.

Winning Team interpreting a modern Indian dance complete with shawls from Little India

By Jacob Soh

Paying close attention to Prof Tay speaking about wills

